

FEUSA and Professional Association Membership

What is Professional Association Membership and How Does It Work?

As a Professional Association Member of Family Enterprise USA (FEUSA) all professional association members receive a complimentary one-year Associate Membership with FEUSA.

How Do Professional Associations Benefit from Family Enterprise USA?

- Monthly association branded, customized articles, news, insights from Capitol Hill
- Tax updates affecting family-owned businesses via email for membership
- Access/Registration to FEUSA podcasts, webcasts, and other content for your members
- Invitation to attend in person National and Regional Events
- Quarterly Legislation and Political updates by legislative team in DC
- FEUSA benefits/resources per Association Membership for association members
- Association Logo/Brand added to FEUSA website, creating additional impressions
- Association “About” Information added to FEUSA Association page
- Members will receive a complimentary one-year Associate membership with Family Enterprise USA (FEUSA).

Complimentary FEUSA membership includes timely informational updates on tax and economic legislative issues, regular email updates, newsletter articles, white papers, and webcasts. These activities address the important issues impacting generational family businesses, including tax policy, governance, succession, and more.

With each membership there are quarterly Zoom updates with our top legal experts from Squire Patton Boggs and Brownstein, political insights and conversations with Members of Congress, and other policy experts.

The benefits also include invitations to special events, including the Congressional Family Business Caucus meetings, which are held three times a year on Capitol Hill. In addition, a representative from the professional association will be invited to select regional events that FEUSA hosts around the country.

How It Works

You control your database and the information flow. We disseminate the information to the designated contact person at your association, who in turn sends out the information to your base of Members.

Each New Association Membership receives additional marketing support in the following ways:

- Press Release Distribution for Each New Association Member
 - Distributed over national news wire services
 - Available to each new association to use in its promotion to their members
 - Posted on FEUSA website, creating additional impressions
- Social media coverage of new association sign-ups and news
- Email promotion to all FEUSA members on new professional association members
 - Potential significant professional association news mentions in press releases and emails to FEUSA

How Associations Work with Family Enterprise USA?
